FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Michael J. Gorman joins Mufson Howe Hunter as a Director

Philadelphia, PA – June 13, 2022 – Mufson Howe Hunter, an investment banking firm, based in center city Philadelphia, announced that Michael J Gorman has joined the firm as a Director. Mr. Gorman was previously a Director at Stout, a financial services firm and investment bank, where he was a principal in their special situations group, leading client mandates in sell side M&A and capital placements. Prior to Stout, Mike was a Director at SSG Capital Advisors for over 14 years, a special situations investment bank where he lead over 50 transactions representing in excess of $1 billion in aggregate deal value. Over his career in investment banking, Mike has developed a diverse transactional background, representing companies across numerous industry sectors.

At Mufson Howe Hunter, Mike will leverage his extensive transaction experience working with founders and owners of middle market companies in the industrial services, distribution, and diversified manufacturing sectors. “We look forward to having Mike Gorman work with our traditional client activities as well as developing our practice with special situation engagements” states Michael Mufson, a founder and Managing Director.

Mike received his B.S. from the United States Military Academy, West Point, NY and a MBA from Drexel University, Philadelphia PA.

Mufson Howe Hunter primarily focuses on sell side M&A and capital raising for middle market companies in business services, technology services, consumer & retail, industrials & distribution. Mufson Howe Hunter advises privately-held companies with a particular emphasis on family and closely-held middle market businesses.
